As per Chapter 3 of the MILSPERSMAN, all funds provided through the Prince of Wales Awards (POWA) must be acquitted. In addition to the above cost breakdown, POWA recipients must also provide a scanned PDF of receipts for their POWA activity.

If upon completion of your POWA activity, you have unspent POWA funds, Defence is obligated to recover the unspent monies. An invoice must be raised to repay the grant as soon as practicable. Please alert JSSD via JSSD.NPP@defence.gov.au who will raise an invoice via Defence Accounts Receivable to have the monies recovered.

Defence is obligated to recover any unspent monies. If upon completion of your POWA activity you have unspent funds, please advise JSSD by sending an email to JSSD.NPP@defence.gov.au, specifying the amount of unspent funds. We will raise an invoice via Defence Accounts Receivable and forward that to you with instructions on how to repay the unspent funds.
